

Our Lymphedema Specialist and Certified Wound Care Therapist Christina Hankins attended Texas State University where she graduated with Honors in 2000. In 2003 she earned her master's degree in Physical Therapy.

With well over 20 years of experience, she has increasingly become an influence in her practice as a teacher at the Norton School of Lymphatic Therapy and Chikly Health since 2012.

While Christina specializes in Lymphedema, her practice also includes Lipedema, Phlebolympedema, Wound Care, and Home Exercise Programs. She is also the founder of CRH Healing Connections Est 2012, and in 2014 she founded Lymphwell in Round Rock, TX.

Christina has diligently worked to go beyond routine physical therapy and is committed to give only the best quality of care to each of her patients. She is devoted to the care of her patients from start to finish ensuring that their recovery is complete. She offers her patients nothing but first-class long-term care and take pride in creating individualized plans for the success of every single patient.

With over 20 years of excellence, she leads her field of study with her solid background and initiative.

As the founder and CEO of Lymphwell, she strives to inspire, lead, and build all her employees. Her love for life, and family comes through as she hires the best of the best and treats each of member of her team like one of her own. She has built and cultivated a competitive practice second to none, and her employees all stand with her to create their own standard of care that speaks for itself.
